The following Indiana prospects had a solid event in games we were able to observe while at the tournament.

Always 100 Wright

2019 5'9 G Sydney Freeman Central Noble

Becoming one of the premier true point guards in the 2019 class. Solid shot behind the arch, good feel for the game on both ends, IQ, poise and excels at facilitating and competing. She has added strength and confidence over the last year.

Always 100 Roller

2017 5'10 W Dayton Groninger Warsaw

Versatile wing that is able to use length, IQ, and solid skill set to affect game on both ends of the court. Good feel for the game, fluid, has the handles to operate at the guard spot but most natural on the wing attacking the basket with a capable jump shot. Rebounds well and can push the ball in transition. D2/NAIA prospect

2018 6'1 G Leigha Brown Dekalb

Strong long frame with guard skill set. Versatile weapon on the offensive end with deep 3 ball range, ability to attack rim with her strength and size and a deadly mid-range pull up jumper. Brown has been a major stock riser in 18' class over the last year. D1 prospect with offers.

George Hill Lady Rising Stars

2019 5'10 CG Rikki Harris North Central

One of the more dynamic scorers in the state regardless of class. Has incredible feel for game, completely fluid, able to score ball in nearly every way. Has handles, high skill set, size, and athleticism to line up at multiple spots and can defend multiple spots. She also rebounds very well from the guard position. High D1 Prospect with multiple offers.

ILGR Purple

2018 6'0 F Tia Chambers Penn

Tia has strong forward frame, operates with agility, touch, and physicality around the basket. She is comfortable with ball at 15', attacks ball off the rim on both ends and is a plus defender. Needs additional work on decision making, processing with the ball away from the hoop.

ILGR Red

2019 5'8 G Madison Jones Western Boone

High motor kid that competes baseline to baseline. She is quick off the bounce, handles well, is fearless going to the rim, solid from behind the arch and is an improving facilitator. We like her enthusiasm, communication and floor leadership. She has been a stock riser this club season.

ILGR Gold

2019 5'7 G Ella Thompson Center Grove

Exceptional handles, quick with the ball, able to get to the rim and very capable shooter from the arch. She is improving her consistency with decision making from possession to possession. Also displays a high motor, is a plus defender, and has played at and against high level for some time.

2019 6'1 W Tayah Irvin Hamilton Southeastern

Long wiry wing that is still growing and has plenty of upside as a youngster. She has a Improving skill set on the offensive end, uses her length and athleticism to be proficient around the rim while also comfortable with the ball on the perimeter. She will need to add strength and bulk to her frame to become more physical in all aspects of game.

ILGR Silver

2019 5'7 G Shaila Beeler Warren Central

Top true PG in the 2019 class. Exceptional handles, explosive off the dribble, able to create space and scoring opportunity for herself and teammates with superior athleticism and skill set. Beeler stepped up during the viewing period to ILGR Silver EYBL team and was ready to perform at the highest level. Stock riser in viewing period. High D1 prospect with multiple offers

Indiana Swish Owen

2018 5'3 PG Anna Newman Evansville North

High motor small PG that seems to figure in on about every play on both ends of the court. Anna is pretty proficient scorer for size, scoring in multiple ways while also doing a good job of setting table for teammates. She possess good handles, court vision, is poised under pressure and shows nice leadership qualities. D1 prospect with offers.

Hoosier Premier Red

2018 5'10 G Brooke McKinley Northridge

McKinley was filling it from the 3 point line over the course of the event. She has nice size frame at the guard spot, very capable of handling the ball , making solid decisions and facilitating but is more natural at the SG. She is a good finisher going to rim, using her length, and as stated a knockdown shooter.

2017 5'8 G Tori Styers Culver

High motor kid that affects game on both ends with her energy and compassion to compete. Tori gets after it defensively with tough on the ball defense, getting deflections, 50/50 balls, and saving possessions. She continues to add to her skill set on offensive end, is fluid, and good athlete. NAIA prospect

Hoosier Premier Black

2017 5'7 SG Meredith Brouette Tippecanoe Valley

Smooth shooting lefty, knocking down 3s is where she excels. However, there is more to her game including high energy, battling on both ends of the floor and getting her teammates involved. Also, appears to display good leadership qualities as well. NAIA prospect

Indiana Flight South 17

2017 5'10 F Taylor Drury Eastern Pekin

Strong frame along with her athleticism lets Taylor excel and put up big numbers as an undersize 4. Smooth, with good feel and touch around the basket. She runs the floor like a guard, has significant hops and is very comfortable and capable with the ball on the wing. She is a under recruited prospect that has skill set and aptitude to play at the 3 at the next level. D2/NAIA prospect.

2017 6'0 F Chyna Anthony New Albany

Tremendous athletic ability with hops out of the gym. She has steadily been improving her offensive skills and proficiency but her biggest impact is on the boards and her ability to be a defensive stopper in the middle with shot blocking and leaping ability. D1 prospects with multiple offers.

Indiana Flight South 15

2019 5'10 F Jacqlyn Rice Paoli

Strong build with solid skill set. When observed she was playing in the post and using her agility, ability to play through contact and a good feel for the game to create and finish chances around the basket. However, she demonstrated ball handling ability in traffic, a fundamental approach, a capable jump shot and good athleticism that would translate to the wing as well.

Sky Diggs Elite Parrish

2020 6'1 G Sydney Parrish Hamilton Southeastern

Recognized as perhaps the top incoming frosh in the state and one of the elite 2020 talents nationally. She was one of only three invitee to USA basketball tryout that had not yet competed in high school. 6'1 CG guard that has the size, skill set, and athleticism to play and defend nearly every spot on the court. Her ability to handle and shoot, along with her size and bball IQ attributes to a lethal offensive skill set. High D1 prospect with offers

2020 5'10 W Jazmine McWilliams Carmel

Great athleticism with emerging skill set. She is agile, fluid, runs the floor well, explosive to ball off the rim with hops. Jazmine excels in the transition game and using her long frame with athleticism around the basket on both ends.

Team Pride Block

2017 5'4 PG Keyla Hines Franklin Central

Strong and physical with a stocky 5'4 frame. Keyla uses her quickness, ability to play through contact, and handles to get into the lane and create for herself and teammates. She is playing more consistent in regards to valuing the ball and limiting turnovers. She plays low to the floor on both ends, plays solid on the ball defense and rebounds well from the guard spot. NAIA/D3 prospect
